including Grecian specialties, will be on sale at Lucky Markets, Foods Co. and Bank of America, May 9. Proceeds will go toward a South Bay Greek Orthodox church building.

Grecian Goodies Announced for Bake Sale

Exotic Grecian pastries will be featured again when the "Dorcas" Philoptochos Society fetes Mother's Day, May 9, with its second annual Bake Sale. The sale will be held at the Foods Co., 17500 South Crenshaw at 10 a.m. Sales will also take place at the same time at Lucky Market and J. J. Newberry's in Redondo Beach and Moores Market in Palos Verdes Plaza.

The Grecian pastries including such enticing treats as: Baklava, Karidopeta, Melomakarona, Kouloria and Diples are made from recipes handed down through generations of fine cooks and made of only the best ingredients. The Society of Greek ladies, organized a year ago, is a non-profit organization, with the entire proceeds of all projects going to charity.

The sale will also include cakes decorated with "Mother" and floral designs, sweetbreads, nut breads and brownies.

The committee, headed by Chairman Spiro Pappas and Co-chairman Chris Eliopoulos includes: Mmes. Richard Nelson, James Orfano, Tom Vanides, Gus Morfis, Peter Poulos, Peter Georgousis, John Donlou, Gus Doxakis, William Kotarinos, Nick Karaly, and Despina Chalekson.

At a speed of 60 miles an hour the driver's car would be more than 200 feet beyond the stop sign before he could stop, no matter how fast his reactions might be.

Registration for Summer Camping Starts

New friendships will be formed in all three established camps for Girl Scouts of Los Angeles Council during the summer of 1953.

Registration may be made by mail to the council office, 332 S. Virgil Ave. Out of Council Scouts and non-Scouts may apply after June 1.

In addition to the already popular Camp Osito-Rancho near Big Bear and White's Landing on Catalina Island, a third camp, Manzanita, has been added for nine-year-old Brownies. Three 12-day sessions are scheduled at Camp Manzanita, near Wrightwood, starting August 7 and concluding Sept. 10.

Osito-Rancho opens first session June 26 with camp periods of 12 to 14 days ending Sept. 8. White's Landing will be ready to receive campers on June 27 with regular sessions until Aug. 21. From Aug. 23 through Sept. 3 there will be a camp for Mariner Scouts only.

Pilot Club Holds Fifth Annual Installation

Harold Frenz, manager of the Bank of America, Torrance, was the speaker at the fifth annual installation of officers of the Pilot Club of Torrance. Mrs. John Whittington, chairman of the Club Action Committee, was in charge of arrangements for the dinner meeting held at the Jump 'n Jack Restaurant.

Miss Esther Harter of Beverly Hills, immediate past district governor of District 18 of Pilot International, conducted installation.

New officers are Mmes. Charles Mitchell, president; John Whittington, first vice president; Mary Young, second vice president, Miss Mae Sleep, recording and corresponding secretary; Mmes. Joseph Burchfield, treasurer; Joseph DeJaifre, Clara Dougherty and Herma Tillim, directors.

A wooden ship's wheel, the Pilot Club emblem, was presented to the club by Mrs. Mitchell. Pins were presented to Mmes. Joseph DeJaifre, Clara Dougherty, Mary Young and Herma Tillim for perfect attendance the past year.

Music Dedication

Another in the series of special festivities at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, 21100 Victor St., will be held May 3, when a special service marking the Dedication of Sacred Music will be held at 10:45, announces R. v. Gerald W. Garlid. Sunday school will be held at 9:30.

Featured in the dedication service will be groups of anthems by the church choir, directed by the pastor, and the junior choir, directed by Mrs. A. C. Uglum with Mrs. Leon E. Alderman as pianist. Theme of the pastor's meditation will be "The Song of Life."

Reel Square Dance

"With a whoop and a holler" the Reel Squares will gather at 8 p.m., this evening at Waleria Recreation Park, 3855 W. 242 Street, for their square dance session.

President, Ray Sydenstriker, announces the evening will be "Reunion Night" with special invitations extended to past visitors and members.

George Perry will call and plans for the Knott's Berry Farm Dance will be discussed.

Jeanne and Carl Whistler, host and hostess for the evening, state the club will welcome visitors on an intermediate level. Reservations may be obtained by calling FR 5-1927.

FAMILY NIGHT FILM

Deborah Kerr and Robert Taylor will star in the second of the series of Family Night films that will be presented at 7:30 p.m. at the Seaside Community E&R Church May 1.

The films are sponsored by the Women's Guild of the Church. Donation 40c for children, 60c for adults, $2 for a family.

Teens Needs

Needs of Teen-agers will be the evenings topic when South High PTA meets May 5 at the Gym, 7:30 p.m.

Students will report on co-curricular activities, codes and counseling following a short business meeting and installation of officers.
